Notes:

Harry Levi Langham

The 1910 census says he was a wagon driver for a coal merchant in Toledo, OH. He moved his family from the Toledo area to Bunkerhill in 1920 or 1921, after his daughter Marian was killed by a auto driven by a doctor that was drunk.

In Bunker Hill, MI, he and his family lived on Williamston Rd. He was a teamster. He also did roadwork and helped build roads in Flint, MI. He farmed in Bunkerhil, and took his produce to the Detroit Farmers Market every week.

He built a smaller home after the children were all gone, but that house burnt and is no longer there.

He played the Banjo. He loved to hunt, and had coon dogs.

Georgia May Fletcher

She married Harry Langham on May 20 1909 in Toledo, Lucas, Ohio. She had been left in the Lucas County Children's Home when she was about 3 years old by her mother. Her father apparently left the family. The managers who ran the orphanage released her for marriage before she was 17 because they approved of Harry Langham. She was a great cook. She played the piano, which she learned as a child in one of her foster homes. She was very kind. She loved violets, and named one of her daughters Violet.

From Find-a-grave:

He served in the Army Air Corps in WWII. He spent most of his service years in the Panama Canal Zone and at Lakeland Florida. He afterward built many homes in the Williamston area, and had a farm in the Williamston area. He played the Banjo, and he and his wife Lucy played for dances and at family Christmas parties.

They had no children.

Marion Langham

From Find-a-grave site:

From Find-a-grave: "She was killed by a Doctor driving drunk". The death certificate says "internal injuries caused by being accidentally struck by automobile". It apparently happened on W. Bancroft St. in Washington Township, Lucas County, OH.

Richard Langham

From the 1940 census for Bunkerhill; he appears to have lived on Friermuth Road, was age 24, living with wife Lucile, age 20. She was born in Michigan. Richard is a Machine Operator in a metal screw factory and Lucille is a shipping room clerk in an auto parts factory.

3 Good photos on this site, along with this info:

He did Lawn mower repair from his home. I understand he had a back problem that prevented him from working most regular jobs. He loved his garden and grew beautiful dalias.

On his Find a Grave page is the photo of the bronze plate apparently on his grave stone that says:

Richard Langham
